MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Democrat Established 1866. Vol. XL.
Sentinel Established 1880. Vol. XXVII.

Consolidated 1907.

TWO PARTS—SEDALIA, MISSOURI, TUESDAY EVENING, AUGUST 3, 1909—PART ONE.

VOL. 3 NO. 184. PRICE FIVE CENTS

WILL MARRY AUGUST 12

ANNOUNCEMENT WAS MADE AT A PARTY GIVEN MONDAY AFTERNOON.

FUNCTION AT HOME OF MRS. WHERLEY

Mr. Albert Porter, a Prosperous Farmer, Is to Claim Miss Josephine Allen as His Bride on the Date Above Stated.

Mrs. A. A. Wherley, residing five miles east of town, gave a signal announcement party at her home Monday afternoon, during the progress of which she announced the engagement of her sister, Miss Josephine Allen, a pretty and popular Pettis county girl, to Albert Porter, a prosperous and well liked young farmer living east of the city.

The wedding will occur at the home of Miss Allen's parents, Squire and Mrs. W. S. Allen, of near Beaman, at 11 o'clock on the morning of Thursday, August 12.

The Rev. Dr. J. B. Fuller, of this city, will officiate. There will be no attendants. The wedding march will be played by Mrs. Walker Finley, and little Miss Anna Josephine Wher-ley will serve as flower girl.

After a sumptuous dinner at the home of the bride-elect, the bridal couple will leave for a six weeks'
honeymoon at Denver and other points in the Centennial state, at the conclusion of which they will return here to go to housekeeping on Mr. Porter's farm.

Sixteen young lady friends of the bride-to-be attended the announcement party, none, however, realizing that a surprise was to be sprung.

The Wherley home was artistically decorated in pink and white flowers
and violets, and in the dining room
was a booth, modeled to resemble a postoffice. August Wherley, of Fresno, Cal., was the postmaster.

When the party was well under way the guests repaired to the postoffice, where each received her allotment of mail. Each letter contained an announcement of the approaching event.

After extending hearty congratulations to the bride-to-be and wishes
for a long and happy married life,
refreshments of ice cream, cake, lemonade, bananas and other delicacies
were served.

Mr. Porter is a son of Mrs. Hattie Porter, of this county.

SEND IN YOUR RECIPES

Which is the Best Way to Cook Sedalia's Fruit Crop?

Since the Democrat-Sentinel has inaugurated the tomato growing contest it has brought out another feature, that of the best way to cook to-matos.

At an assembly of women the other day the growing contest was spoken of; then each one proceeded to tell how she cooked her tomatoes, and in the discussion any number of recipes were spoken of, and it is said
some very novel ones not known to the average cook were mentioned.

In order that the readers of this paper may get the benefit of these recipes, it now throws open its columns to those who have a recipe
they think is good, and cordially invites them to send a written one to this office. The same will be published, giving credit to the writer, and let the public decide which is the best one by putting them in actual use.

DIVORCE SUIT IS FILED

Phillip Schaefer is the Defendant in the Litigation.

Phillip Schaefer, an employee of the Looney-Bloss Lumber Company, was made the defendant in a suit for divorce instituted by his wife, Mrs.
Laura Schaefer, in the office of Circuit
Clerk C. W. Daugherty late Monday
afternoon.

Mrs. Schaefer alleged general abuse and mistreatment, claiming that the defendant cursed and abused her,
calling her many vile names in the presence of their daughter, and, to add a fitting climax to his insults,
said he did not love her, never did
and never expected to.

The couple was married on May 2, 1893. They lived together until August 1, 1909. Besides a decree of divorce, plaintiff asks for the custody

of their minor daughter, May, aged 13, also suit money, attorney fees, alimony pendente lite and such further orders as may be deemed proper.

W. D. Steele is plaintiff's attorney.

Moyer Again Heads Miners.

Denver, Col., Aug. 3.—Charles H.
Moyer was this morning unanimously reelected president of the Western Federation of Miners. This is his eighth term in that office.

Lad Is Convalescing.

Julie Schmid, Jr., son of J. G.
Schmid, the caterer, is convalescing nicely from an attack of typhoid fever at his home, 226 South Prospect street.

CAPTAIN JOHN M. GLENN

WILL BE GENERAL MANAGER OF BUSINESS TO OPEN HERE ABOUT SEPTEMBER 1.

IS TO BE ESTABLISHED BY DAVID STERN

Picture Enlarging Gallery, With $10-000 Stock, to Be Opened as Soon as Suitable Location
Is Found

David Stern, the well known picture enlarger, residing at 407 East Broadway, will on or about September 1 open an extensive picture enlarging gallery in this city, with a $10,000 stock on hand.

John M. Glenn, ex-postmaster, has been engaged by Mr. Stern to be the general manager of the new establishment.

Mr. Stern is now seeking a suitable location, and as soon as he makes a definite selection active work for the opening of the business will be begun.

Mr. Stern's plan for conducting his business is entirely new. It will be devoted entirely to the enlarging of pictures, giving the photographs an excellent finish, with artistic touch,
and can be paid for on weekly installments.

Mr. Stern for a number of years past has traveled throughout the country engaged in similar work, although not with the present plan.
His friends are numerous, and all will wish him the success that he is sure to attain with his new undertaking.

PICNIC AT FAIR GROUNDS

The Bible School of the First Christian Church.

The Bible school of the First Christian church will give its annual picnic at the Missouri State Fair grounds
Thursday next, August 5th.

The pupils and parents living in the northwestern part of the city will take the car at Third and Prospect streets promptly at 10 o'clock; those living in the southwestern part of the city, west of Grand avenue, will be picked up as the car goes to the fair grounds.

All other pupils will meet at the church at 9:30, and at 10 o'clock promptly will take the car on the switch opposite the Maywood hospital.

All patrons of the school must have a tag for free transportation.—
W. W. Herold, superintendent; W. O.
Terry, assistant superintendent.

MEETING WAS POSTPONED

That of the Y. M. C. A. Takes Place
Thursday Night.

A meeting of the board of directors of the local Y. M. C. A. was to have been held Monday night, but was postponed until next Thursday night.

John H. Piper, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., has rented the John L. Hall bungalow, at Ninth street and Vermont avenue, and with his family will move into the place on August 15.

At present Mr. Piper and family are living at the Dr. A. H. Heaton residence, on West Seventh street.

Mike Rymer Lost $30.

Mike Rymer, janitor at the court house, lost $30—a $20 bill and two $5
bills—when he pulled a bunch of keys
from his pocket while in the performance of his duties Monday.

The money was found by County Assessor Phil Sullivan, who returned it to the owner.

PAST PERFORMANCES

This evening President Taft, for the first time, saw himself reproduced while making a speech by a moving picture machine.—News item.

FRAGTURE OF THE SKULL

WAS SUSTAINED BY CHARLES HUGHES IN A RUNAWAY
MISHAP TODAY.

IT OCCURRED IN NORTHEAST SEDALIA

His Uncle, Named Braden, and Estill
and John Miller, Brothers, Also Hurt—Mr. Hughes' Condition Serious.

Charles Hughes, a farmer of Hughesville, was badly injured, and
his uncle, named Braden, and Estill Miller and brother Johnnie, all of the same locality, were painfully bruised
and lacerated in a runaway accident
in the vicinity of Saline street and Engineer avenue at 3 o'clock this morning.

Mr. Hughes injuries consist of a probable fracture of the skull over the right eye, possibly a fracture of the right leg and numerous bruises all over his body.

He is now in a critical condition at the home of his brother-in-law, 1600
East Fourth street. Dr. E. F. Staats is attending him.

Mr. Hughes and party had left Sedalia on their return trip to Hughes-ville. They were seated on a hay wagon, pulled by a team of mules.
When in the foregoing locality the animal became frightened at the whistle of a passing train.

They made a dash forward and ran for a distance of five blocks, increasing their speed each minute. The occupants were thrown from the wagon
shortly after the team took fright, the wheels of the wagon passing over Charles Hughes' feet at the ankle, badly injuring them and possibly fracturing one foot.

Braden and the two Miller boys
suffered painful bruises and lacerations
all over their bodies, although their injuries were not so serious as to keep them from walking.

The hay wagon was smashed to pieces.

JOHN H. ANTES' NEW JOB

Will Handle Kitchen Cabinet for Mr.
S. K. Bullard.

S. K. Bullard, of Sedalia, superintendent of telegraph and electrical equipment for the M. K. T. system, and a brother of Dan Bullard, our popular miller and elevator man, was in town Monday, says the Warrensburg Star. Mr. Bullard was accompanied by Jno. H. Antes, of Sedalia, one of the gentlemen associated with him in an enterprise which will have headquarters here in the new Christopher block.

Mr. Bullard controls the Security Kitchen metal cabinet, a recent invention, which is considered by those who have seen it to be the most useful and convenient article ever made for the benefit of housewives.

It is different from anything on the market, and Mr. Bullard will have four men in the field. We predict great success for the enterprise.

WAS $2755 IN HANDBAG

PHILADELPHIA WOMAN OWNER OF A FAT PURSE LOST ON A STEAMER.

BESIDES MONEY, CONTAINED JEWELRY

Bore the Initials "G. L. W."—Grace
Livingston Wheeler Proved It
Was Her Property and It Was Given to Her.

New York, Aug. 3.—The wealth-
laden handbag bearing the initials
"G. L. W." which was found on the excursion steamer City of Worcester on July 9, was claimed yesterday by a woman who gave her name as Grace Livingston Wheeler, of Philadelphia.

The bag when opened was recently found to contain $2755 in new bills,
two gold watches, two diamond rings
and other valuables.

The claimant who appeared yesterday was given possession of the bag
and its contents after she had told the amount of money in the receptacle, the number of watches and other details.

Hunting for the Abductors.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 3.—Chief of Police Creedy has taken personal charge of the hunt for the abductors
of Grace and Alfonso Viviano.

He has increased the force of officers on the case. All parties involved in the kidnapping are Sicilians.
The police believe the children are in the city under cover. Four suspects have been arrested.

GOOD WOMAN IS CALLED

MRS. SALLIE F. BRINTON DIED
AT HER HOME MONDAY
AFTERNOON.

HAD BEEN AILING SINCE FEBRUARY 6

A Member of Central Presbyterian Church and Held in the Highest Possible Esteem By All Who Knew Her.

Mrs. Sallie F. Brinton, one of Sedalia's most estimable and Christian ladies, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John L. Murphy, 310 East Tenth street, at 5:05 o'clock Monday afternoon, following an illness with a complication of diseases dating back to February 6.

Mrs. Brinton was born and reared at Harrodsburg, Ky. She was the widow of the late Alfred B. Brinton, for years a widely known and esteemed citizen of Sedalia, who died on January 20, 1908.

Six months ago Mrs. Brinton was taken ill with a cold. She was given the utmost attention by her two faithful daughters, and the best of medical skill was engaged to attend her.
Week by week she grew gradually worse, but her remarkable vitality
maintained life until the hour stated,
although for the past few days her condition was so critical that death
at any moment would not have occasioned surprise.

Mrs. Brinton was a devout member of the Central Presbyterian church.
Throughout her life she practiced acts of kindness that will long be remembered by those to whom she had extended a helping hand, and on perusing the notice of her demise every acquaintance will speak a kind word
in memory of a life admirable in all that the term implies.

Mrs. Brinton is survived by her two daughters, Mrs. John L. Murphy and Miss Bess Brinton, both of this city.
She also leaves one brother and two sisters, as follows: John B. Mann, of Harrodsburg, Ky.; Mrs. E. H. Meyer and Miss Jane Mann, both of Danville, Ky.

Mrs. Brinton was a sister-in-law of former Senator F. M. Cockrell, of Warrensburg, the latter's first wife,
now deceased, being Mrs. Brinton's sister.

The Rev. A. A. Boyd, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church, will conduct funeral services at the family residence at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. Burial will be in Crown Hill cemetery.

Active pall-bearers will be: Charles Rosenmiller, Otto Kleuber, Robert Hitch, Harry Meuschke, W. J. Brill
and Len M. Burrows.

Honorary pall-bearers will be: J.
H. Lincoln, J. H. Chaney, H. H. Fleming and J. D. Lyon.

The music will be in charge of Mrs.
Harvey MacGugin.

A Bean 35½ Inches in Length.
Mrs. J. A. Challacombe, wife of an
M. K. & T. engineer, residing at 422
East Seventh street, last evening exhibited at the office of the Democrat-Sentinel a yard bean, measuring 35½ inches in length.

THE CURSE OF A CRIPPLE

SUICIDE OF HARRY PULLIAM RECALLS AN ANATHEMA
UPON A TRIO.

HARRY K. THAW WAS ONE OF THE PARTY

Stanford White's Slayer, Dr. Bingham and Pulliam Figured in Grim Incident in Pittsburg Four Years Ago.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 3.—The suicide of Harry C. Pulliam, president of the National League, whose funeral occurred at Louisville, Ky., has brought to light a curse pronounced on Pulliam and two friends of prominence
who have since met strange fates.

Four years ago Pulliam, with his close friends, Harry K. Thaw and Dr.
Walker S. Bingham, was standing in front of the Hotel Henry here,
when all laughed aloud at some remark.

A cripple in passing the group at the time had fallen to the pavement.
He thought they laughed at his fall.
Rising, he cursed Thaw, Pulliam and Bingham fiercely, predicting for each one an awful death.

Pulliam ran after the cripple to tell him that they had not been laughing
at his fall and that they were sorry
for his misconception, but the cripple would not listen. Pulliam returned to Thaw and Bingham, saying:

"I don't know what you fellows think of this, but I don't like it. It makes me feel queer; as if something would really happen to us."

When Thaw killed White Pulliam was one of the first to recall the curse of the crippled man in Pittsburg, and from that time forth he asserted his belief that something bad would happen to all on whom the curse had been placed.

It has been but a short time since
Dr. Bingham was placed in the Dixmont Insane hospital by friends.

EPWORTH LEAGUE MEETING

Will Give Watermelon Social Friday
Night, August 13.

Twenty members of the Epworth League of the First Methodist Episcopal church met on the lawn at the home of the Rev. Grant A. Robbins, 403 West Fifth street, Monday night,
for a business meeting and social session.

David Bulkley was appointed a committee of one, with power to appoint sub-committees to arrange a watermelon social to be given at some suburban residence on Friday night, August 13.

The guests will assemble at the church parlors and be driven on a hay wagon to the scene.

Routine business was transacted at the meeting, after which the evening was devoted to a social time, interspersed with serving of light refreshments.

OPEN SESSION TONIGHT

For Members of Sedalia Court No. 39, Tribe of Ben Hur.

The members of Sedalia Court No.
39, Tribe of Ben Hur, will give an open session for the members of the tribe and their friends at the Sedalia Printing Company hall tonight.

A musical and literary program
will be rendered, followed by a dance, after which ice cream and cake will be served.

Those who will take part in the program are: Misses Helen Norton, Louise Rast, Helen Moore and Nora Nellons, and also the Green Leaf quartette.

HIS VOTE COST HIM JOB

SWITCHED SUPPORT TO DEMO-CRATS AND DID NOT GET POSTOFFICE.

REPUBLICANS CALL HIM A "SOREHEAD"

Congressman Crow Was Willing to Endorse an Old Soldier, But the County Chairman Said,
"Nay, Pauline."

Washington, Aug. 2.—It is an unforgivable sin for a republican in the Fourteenth Missouri district to get disgruntled and vote the straight democratic ticket. A certain veteran of the Union army who much desired
a postoffice plum has learned this to his sorrow.

He heard that the postmaster was about to resign. Immediately he took his pen in hand and wrote Congressman Charles A. Crow a long letter, making known his desire in unmistakable language and calling attention to the fact that he had seen service in the ranks of the men who wore the blue.

Crow replied that his name would be recommended, provided he could secure the indorsement of the county committee. Crow also wrote immediately to the county chairman, telling him he would favor the appointment of the veteran if acceptable to the committee.

Just what reply the old veteran got from the county chairman is not known at this end of the line, but the following extract from a letter to Crow from the chairman indicates that it was anything but favorable:

"I do not doubt that _____ is an ex-Union soldier. But I am told that he has become a sorehead
and at the last two elections voted a straight democratic ticket. If so,
the republicans of this county must never indorse him. We stand for clean, honest, conscientious republicans in preference to disgruntled
ones with a political bellwache.

PUT IN A PADDED CELL

McLaughlin Brothers Were Awarded
the Contract.

At today's session of the judges of the Pettis county court, McLaughlin Bros. were given the contract for the construction of a padded cell in the county jail for the use of insane patients. The cell is to cost $35.

The resignation of W. R. Curry as constable of Longwood township was accepted and Fred Reece was appointed to succeed him.

All properly audited bills were allowed, except the criminal fee bills for July, amounting to $764.50, which the judges were considering at the hour the Democrat-Sentinel went to press.

SECRET SERVICE OFFICER

Has Headquarters Changed From Sedalia to Jefferson City.

Walter J. Kemp, a Missouri Pacific secret service officer, who has been stationed in Sedalia for several years past, has been transferred to Jefferson City, and left for that point on the noon train today to remain.

His successor is ex-Sheriff Koch, of Warrensburg, Johnson county, who has arrived to enter upon his new duties.

Mr. Kemp will not move his family from Sedalia.

Will Build $10,000 Home.

Adolph Reiche has purchased from R. D. Marshall a lot and one-half lot just east of R. C. Combs' home, on West Third street, and at an early date will begin the erection of a modern and up-to-date residence to cost
in the neighborhood of $10,000.

He Drank "Tainted" Milk.

Rae Berteche, son of Mr. and Mrs.
J. J. Berteche, who was recently taken ill in Kansas City with ptomaine poisoning, caused by drinking tainted milk, has sufficiently recovered to be up and around, and if his condition
permits he will arrive home tomorrow
to remain until he fully recovers.

Dr. Carter's Canning Factory.

Dr. W. M. Carter's canning factory is now ready for operation, but it will be the latter part of the month before the product is ripe and ready to can.
Dr. Carter has thirty acres of to-matos, and the outlook for a good crop is all that could be asked.

lay and otherwise exasperates him. There isn't one passenger in ten who uses Pullman car frequently that hasn't been compelled at one time or another to put up with annoyances of this character. Probably most of them have felt like doing what Senator Stone did, but fortunately their self-control saved them humiliating indiscretion.

Now, it is not right that the public should have to put up with the kind of treatment it receives from Pullman employees. The company is to blame for it, and the company is making a mistake by permitting it to continue. Much of the hostility to this monopoly, which is reflected in legislative restrictions and taxation to which it is objecting, has been created by the offensiveness of its employees to patrons. If the company were to pay its men decent wages instead of compelling them to sandbag travelers it would find itself the gainer in the end in more ways than one.

THE END OF THE POOR.

A great city, like a merciless machine, grinds its inhabitants to death with as little compunction as a pair of mill stones reduce golden grain to flour. Chicago, with her wealth and magnificence, her opportunity and her power, her vast enterprise and her manifold industries, is but an upper and lower mill stone, for the grinding of the human race to powder and flinging the refuse aside to be buried in the potter's field. A large part of Chicago's poor suffer from tuberculosis. Those who become county charges are sent to Dunning, where the county almshouse is located. They came during the year closed June 1st at the rate of 13 a day, or 4,735 for the twelve months. These figures mean but little to the average mind, being an abstract proposition.

Step over in the potter's field where they are buried and you will get a better idea of the number. There is an open trench six feet wide dug across a stretch of several acres. One end is filled with freshly turned earth. This is the end of the trench in use as a newly made grave. Every week there are 16 pine boxes placed in this trench, two abreast. It takes 30 feet each week to hold the coffins. They come from Dunning hospital, from Chicago slums and from wherever the destitute die in that great teeming city. Men, women and children all look alike to the great white plague. Tuberculosis is on the increase, you say, and pass on, but you feel it in your bones when you walk through the potter's field on the grounds of Dunning hospital, where Chicago flings the remains of the destitute who die from tuberculosis.

LIVING. HE WAS NO JOKE.

It is not often that the most hard-hearted can see any humor in death, but a story comes from the east that, as far as the victim is personally concerned, is creating humorous comment. He was a cruel oppressor of men, who amassed a fortune, and became the head of a financial institution which was so managed that it was wrecked, and thousands of innocent people were made to suffer. Believing that his own fortune was gone, too, this reckless "financier" blew out his brains, and now after months of straightening out the entanglements it is found that he need not have committed suicide at all, for his estate cleans up a cool million. The people who suffered by his manipulations admit that it may be a little off color to call attention to a joke on the dead, but a joke is a joke, and living this man was no joke.

Rev. Anna Shaw thinks our cities should have women policemen, which leads some one to inquire if she means to keep the peace at bridge parties.

John W. Gates is willing to bet a million that a long season of prosperity has been ushered in. Undoubtedly, for all who can take the bet.

And now they are talking about beating Uncle Joe Cannon in the next election. They would if voters' memories were not so short.

And is Alfonso to be initiated into that charmed and exclusive circle to date composed of Castro, Abdul Hamid and the shah?

John D. Rockefeller makes no bones about it. He comes out flat-footed against the income tax.

Not Pleasant Green Burglar.

An individual with several names, arrested last night on suspicion of having been implicated in the Pleasant Green robbery last week, was fined $5 for drunkenness by Police Judge Gresham today. The jewelry found on his person was viewed by the merchant at Pleasant Green whose store had been robbed, and pronounced other than his.

A SENSATION IN SOCIETY

THE WIFE OF JOHN CHERRY, JR., IS MISSING AND ALSO A CHAUFFEUR.

HUSBAND IS SILENT ON THE SUBJECT

Contractor Who Was Sued By Rachel Cherry Admits Disappearance, But Has Nothing for Publication.

Jacksonville, Ill., Aug. 3.—The wife of John Cherry, Jr., formerly Miss Lina Baskett, of Paris, Mo., has been missing from her home in this city since Saturday.

Mr. Cherry's chauffeur, Peter Haxton, is also missing, not having been seen since Saturday. This had led to sensational reports that have stirred social circles of Jacksonville as they have not been stirred for years.

W. P. Baskett, father of Mrs. Cherry, is in the city. Mr. Cherry has been out of the city several days.

Mrs. Cherry left the city over the Wabash, it is said. She has been in the company of Haxton much of late. In an interview late last night Mr. Cherry says that he has nothing to give to the public.

He said his wife left Saturday evening, and since that time has not been in the city. He would not admit that she had gone where he did not know. Haxton has been twice married, his present wife residing in the city. He has been at the head of the Dave Estance garage for several months.

Cherry was defendant in the famous suit at Paris, Mo., when he was sued by a woman of Bloomington, Ill., calling herself Rachael Cherry, who claimed to be his wedded wife shortly after his marriage to Mrs. Cherry.

No family trouble is known between Mr. and Mrs. Cherry. Her relatives have been here for the past week, and she has been the guest of relatives out of the city. She has always lived a life of luxury.

Mrs. Cherry was formerly Miss Lina Baskett. Her father was superintendent of building and loan associations under the administration of Gov. Lon V. Stephens, and her uncle, W. M. Baskett, served as state senator of Missouri.

NIGHT MARSHAL ALONZO HOWE WAS SHOT AT WINONA LAKE, INDIANA.

SON HAD THREATENED TO WHIP OFFICER

Latter Started to Pull Gun, But the Young Law Student Was Quick—Marshal Forced to Sign a Retraction.

Warsaw, Ind., Aug. 3.—Because of "Southern honor," Night Marshal Alonzo Howe is lying at his home at Winona Lake with bullet holes through both shoulders and other bullet wounds, and Austin Miller, 29 years old, son of Mrs. Kate Miller, of Gainesville, Fla., is a fugitive.

The shooting occurred at 11 o'clock Sunday night at a lonely bridge in Winona and was not reported to officers here until 6 o'clock yesterday morning. The young man accused Howe of making remarks about Mrs. Miller touching upon her character.

Her son bought a blacksnake whip and met the officer on the bridge with the intention of giving him a whipping, such, as he said, "men got for such offenses in the south." The officer was in the act of lighting a cigar when Miller ordered him to throw up his hands and be whipped. Howe refused, and is said to have tried to draw his revolver. Miller abandoned the whip and drew a revolver, firing quickly, the bullet piercing the officer's right shoulder.

Miller fired again three times, the next shot striking the officer's left shoulder, the next nipping his ear and the last grazing his breast and striking against his watch.

Miller then produced a paper, which he forced Howe to sign. This paper denied the statements said to have been made by Howe.

This signed, Miller walked Howe to his home and placed him on a porch and went for a surgeon, whom he took part way back to the Howe home.

Miller then stopped and told of the shooting, discussing it with Marshal A. S. Devol, who made no attempt to arrest him, afterwards saying that he did not know he could make an arrest without a warrant.

Miller is said to have been last seen at Plymouth, Ind. His grandmother, who is at Winona, says Miller is a law student in the College of Virginia.

SUCCEED MAN WHO COMMITTED SUICIDE

The Dead Man's Salary to Be Continued Until the Close of the Season—Players to Wear Mourning for Thirty Days.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 3.—A meeting of the National League board of directors was held here yesterday shortly after the funeral services of the late President Pulliam were concluded.

The object of the session was to choose a successor to fill the unexpired term for president of the National League. Barney Dreyfuss, chairman of one board of directors, and other members—Charles Ebbetts, John Dovey and Charles Murphy—held a brief meeting at the Seelbach hotel. Garry Hermann, who is also a member of the board, was not present, as he is in the West.

After the board of directors was called to order by Chairman Barney Dreyfuss, a vote was immediately taken for the purpose of choosing a successor to the late president of the National League.

It was agreed unanimously to elect John A. Heydler for the position. No one was chosen to fill his position as secretary-treasurer, as he will be able for the present, with the assistance of Miss Caylor, to take care of all the details in the office and on the board.

Besides electing Mr. Heydler president of the National League for the unexpired term, it was agreed by the members at the meeting to continue paying the full salary to the estate of the late President Pulliam for the remainder of the present term of office, which expires December 15. The board of directors further agreed that the National League should erect a suitable monument in honor of one who has always stood for the best interest of the national sport. Messrs. Dreyfuss, Murphy and Hermann were appointed on the monument committee, with instructions to spare no expense.

It was further agreed to request all ball players in the National League to wear a badge of mourning on their sleeves for thirty days. After notifying John A. Heydler of his election the directors adjourned.

Received a Death Message.

W. J. Maltby received a telegram this morning announcing the death of his brother-in-law, J. P. Victory, at his home at Santa Fe, N. M., Sunday night, aged almost 70 years. Deceased leaves a wife and one son. Mr. Victory had been ill two years.

The Sausage in History.

Sausage has even from very early times been a popular table delicacy. Aristophanes was familiar with it and in Roman days the sausages of Lucania were in high esteem. They were made from pork and the nuts of the stone pine, flavored with bay leaves and other things more familiar. Bologna was celebrated for its sausages long before the German sausage had even thought of invading the rest of the world, and until quite lately it was commonly called in England a "polony."

The Useful Sunflower.

In some countries, notably in the Russian provinces north of the Caucasus, the sunflower serves other purposes besides ornamenting gardens with its huge golden bosses. The seeds are used to make oil, which is employed both in the manufacture of soap and in cooking. The stems and leaves are burned and the ashes used to make potash. Last year the sunflower factories of the Caucasus produced 15,000 tons of potash.

His Mistake.

The vender of images, who had just been thrown out of a large office building, wept bitterly as he looked at his torn clothes and broken wares. "Who did this?" inquired the friendly cop. "I'll pinch 'em, if you say the word." "No, it was my fault," said the victim, gathering up the remains of a plaster image. "I insisted on trying to sell a bust of Noah Webster to a meeting of simplified spellers."

On Hand with the Goods.

"I want a home," said the city man, "where I can see plenty of fresh green vegetables and have live stock and chickens about me." "I've got the very thing you want," returned the enthusiastic agent; "a cozy six-room flat right next to a market house."

Bird Like.

"Soon you will be flying through the air like birds." "It has already come to pass," answered the air ship expert. "Our similarity to birds is painful. We have had to apply for the passage of laws that will keep reckless people from shooting at us."

A Mean Revenge.

"You seem to be considerably elated over something." "Yes, I have a friend who is almost stone deaf. I took him out home with me last night, and my wife had to sit there all the evening and merely nod and smile while he talked."

War and Indemnity.

Bishop Hamilton says that war is an antiquated relic. This may be true in theory, but in actual conflict the nation which wages that kind of war is apt to have an indemnity to pay.—Philadelphia North American.

ROBBERS TRY FOR $250,000

Attempt to Wreck Train in Nebraska Carrying Bullion.

Crawford, Neb., Aug. 3.—Unidentified persons made an attempt early yesterday morning to wreck Burlington train No. 36, east bound, about ten miles west of Crawford, to rob the express car of $250,000 worth of gold bullion which was being shipped from a mine at Lead, S. D., to New York City.

Just as the train was approaching the little station of Belmont the engineer discovered on the track ahead an obstruction composed of steel rails.

The train was stopped barely in time to avoid a wreck.

Christ Berger, a farmer, was found near the obstruction and lodged in jail at Valentine.

TO VOTE ON PROHIBITION

JUDGE W. H. WALLACE WANTS
THE PEOPLE TO PASS ON PROPOSITION.

BELIEVES THE "DRYS" WILL SUCCEED

Is of the Opinion That Even Kansas City Will Favor Banishing Saloon—Meeting Is Being Held Today.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 3.—Judge William H. Wallace, of Kansas City, who arrived in St. Louis last night to attend the meeting of the Constitutional Amendment Association, which is to be held today at the Planters'
hotel, takes direct issue with Rev.
E. J. Moore, superintendent of the Missouri Anti-Saloon League, on the advisability of submitting the question of prohibition to a vote next year.

Judge Wallace says Moore is wrong
when he states that the "wet" majorities in the city would more than overcome the "dry" of the country.
Judge Wallace says Moore is wrong
when he says that few towns of 2,500 or over have voted "dry," or would do so. He said that Springfield, Mo., leaked but 135 votes of going dry at an election.

"With a fair registration and election at Kansas City I believe that prohibition will carry there," the judge said. "Look at the way the so-called home rule election went when it was thought the democratic administration had lined up with the saloons. The people overwhelmed them."

"The saloons in Kansas City have always been too much in politics, and the party in power has always used the police force to further its own ends."

"The testimony in all election
fraud investigations has been liberally interspersed with the word
'saloon.' I might safely say that every eighth word is about this saloon or that saloon which has figured in a dirty election deal."

"That element robbed me of several thousand votes when I was a candidate for governor, both in Kansas City and St. Louis. I am positive that my vote was larger in both cities than I was given credit for.
Here in St. Louis my votes seemed to have been divided between the other two leading candidates for the nomination."

The association, Judge Wallace says, will decide today probably to submit a constitutional amendment to the people to be voted upon, rather than a law which may be repealed
by the general assembly.

Judge Wallace is chairman of a committee of three appointed to decide this point and to agree upon a proper form of petition. The other members are Judge G. O. Nations of Farmington and Judge Frank S. Hefnerman of Springfield.

Petitions for the submission of prohibition by the initiative will be circulated in every congressional district of the state, he says, including the districts in St. Louis and Kansas City.

CITY COUNCIL MEETING

ORDINANCE AWARDED LIGHT-ING CONTRACT VETOED BY THE MAYOR.

ORDINANCE FOR PAVING THIRD STREET

Another Ordinance Providing a $100 Fine for Minors to Purchase, or Attempt to Purchase
Liquor in Saloons.

It was 8:25 o'clock last night when Mayor J. L. Babcock rapped for order at the bi-monthly meeting of the city council. J. H. Sullivan was absent.

A petition asking for the establishment of curb lines on Boonville street, from Engineer avenue to the city limits, at a distance of twelve feet, was granted, on motion of Alderman Baker.

A petition asking for the laying of water mains on Fifteenth street,
from Collins to Ingram avenue, was referred to the proper committee, on motion of Alderman Olmsted.

The council sustained the mayor's veto of the ordinance fixing the maximum rate to be charged for lighting and power purposes, on motion of Alderman McKenzie.

On motion of Alderman Johns, the ordinance, with the mayor's veto attached, awarding to the Light and Traction company the contract for furnishing lights to the city, was tabled, to be revived at the next meeting, in order to await the action of the street car company relative to the paving of West Third street.

A verbal request from Julius Rautenstrauch for the repairing of excavations in Seventh street, between Ohio and Grand avenues, made by the public utilities companies, was referred to the city attorney and engineer,
with instructions to enforce the law.
A deed to a lot in Crown Hill cemetery was ordered issued to the board of relief of the Masonic order, following a request from Mr. Rautenstrauch.

An ordinance fixing the maximum rate to be charged for lighting and power in Sedalia was passed. A hitch arose over the section stating that 5 cents per kilowatt is to be charged for power when a two-horse power motor is used, the power company petitioning to have the ordinance amended so as to cover three horse power. A lengthy discussion ensued, the Light and Traction company finally winning their point.

An ordinance was passed for the grading and paving of Third street between Park and Beacon avenues, Alderman Baker voting "nay." Mr.
Baker gave as his reasons for being opposed to the work that the city would be compelled to pay almost $4,000 if that street was paved,
whereas the city didn't have the money
available; and then, too, the work would benefit only some eight residents of that street, who reside on it.
Alderman Ilgenfritz, who owns property on the thoroughfare, attacked the Second ward alderman's stand vigorously, though politely, and stated
Mr. Baker did not know what he was talking about when he said Third street from Park to Beacon avenue
was not traveled extensively.

Mayor Babcock chimed in to take part in the discussion and expressed his views, opposing Mr. Baker's stand. "When property owners want to make improvements we ought not to oppose it," he remarked, and when put to a vote the ordinance carried,
one vote in the Second ward being the only dissension.

Three separate ordinances accepting the work of certain street curbing on East Third street and levying
a special tax to pay for the same
were adopted by a full vote.

J. Ben Gorrell, the only bidder, was awarded the contract for doing certain curbwork on South Washington avenue at 44 cents per lineal foot.

An ordinance for curbing on the north side of Second street from adopted.

Alderman Brown, who resides in the ward harboring the majority of the saloons in the city, petitioned verbally for an ordinance making it punishable by a fine not to exceed $100 for any minor to purchase or endeavor to purchase liquor from any drumshop keeper or others.

Alderman Ilgenfritz favored the plan, saying it was a good idea, but he thought the fine should apply also to poolrooms. Mayor Babcock took part in this also, saying it would furnish a protection for drumshop keepers, as well as for the parents of minors, and he recited the circumstances, omitting names, where two Sedalia saloonkeepers were recently victimized by alleged blackmailers
to the extent of $100 each.

On motion of Alderman Brown, seconded by Mr. Baker, the city attorney was instructed to prepare an ordinance, covering the requirements of Mr. Brown's petition.

Attorney Blain was instructed to prepare an ordinance for the protection of business men who are now paying a double license to the city.
Hereafter, or when the ordinance
goes into effect, only a merchants' license will be required, where now
two licenses are necessary.

The smoke nuisance at the Ideal laundry, on East Third street, was revived by Alderman Pringle, who urged that action be taken to abate
it. Attorney Blain was instructed to file information against the lessees of the laundry and "secure" a conviction.

After allowing all properly audited bills and attending to minor matters,
the council took a recess until tonight, when the West Broadway paying ordinance will be introduced.

W. A. Smith, 409 W. Fifth St., Sedalia, Mo., says: "For years my wife suffered from kidney complaint. She had a constant bearing-down pain in her loins, which was so severe at times she could hardly get about. She was subject to dizzy spells and her heart palpitated violently. The kidney secretions were also irregular and caused her much annoyance. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box for her at Bard's drug store. She received prompt relief and continued until she was in good health."

OPPOSE SALOON LICENSE

John D. Heinrichs, Former Sedalia, the Applicant.

John D. Heinrichs, who a few years ago conducted the Hotel Huckins bar in this city, was written of as follows in the Boonville Gazette of Monday afternoon:

A lively case that is attracting considerable attention is being fought out before the county court today. J. D. Heinrichs, of Pilot Grove, is applicant for a saloon license and members of the church and temperance people are determined he shall not have it.

They came over from Pilot Grove this morning with their fighting clothes on and lost no time in getting busy. The court took the matter up just before dinner, and had just got started when adjournment was taken.

The opposition to the license is based on the allegation that Heinrichs has not secured the legal majority on his petition. The law reads:

"A majority of both assessed-tax-paying citizens and guardians of minors owning property in the town and in the block or square in which the dram shop is to be granted" must sign the petition.

It is optional with the court whether or not a license be granted on a bare majority, but they are compelled to grant it when two-thirds of these qualified sign the petition.

In Heinrichs' case the objectors claim his majority is not composed of those legally entitled to sign it. Roy Williams appears for the protestants and Judge Cosgrove for Heinrichs. A number of witnesses are present from Pilot Grove, and the court may not reach a decision this afternoon.

RUMBLINGS OF THE RAIL

DEMAND IS MADE UPON THE MISSOURI PACIFIC BY GREEKS FOR MORE MONEY.

COACH, CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

There was a lively time among the Greek laborers on the Missouri Pacific Saturday night, says the Boonville Gazette. Considerable dissatisfaction has existed for some time among the men over the wage question. They claimed that $1.35 a day was not enough pay for the work they were doing and demanded $1.50. The company refused to accede to this demand, and, to convince the "kickers" that all kinds of men could be secured for the work at the same figure, imported a bunch of twenty-five from Kansas City.

The coming of the strangers nearly precipitated a riot, and the old employees left nothing undone to convince the newcomers they were decidedly unwelcome.

Finally the pressure became so strong the new men, convinced that "discretion was the better part of valor," quit in a body Saturday night and returned to Kansas City.

After they had seen the twenty-five safely aboard No. 5 Saturday night, all of the old men quit and went on strike to enforce their original demand for $1.50 a day. It is now the company's move, and whether it will grant the demands or import strike-breakers remains to be seen.

Under the direction of an engineering crew the men have been working in the vicinity of Boonville for several weeks, leveling up the tracks and putting the roadbed in first class condition.

Money for Gould Lines.

A special meeting of the Missouri Pacific stockholders will be held on August 7 at St. Louis to vote on a consolidation of some twenty-one different companies now comprising the Missouri Pacific system.

It is proposed to form a new company, also to be called the Missouri Pacific Railway Company, to own and to hold these properties and to itself capitalize at $240,000,000 in stock.

It will then be proposed to authorize a blanket mortgage on all the properties, aggregating $150,000,000, and possibly more. Of the bonds authorized under such mortgage about $90,000,000 will be reserved for refunding. The remainder would be available as the source of new capital.

It is understood that a syndicate of bankers has indicated its willingness to underwrite $85,000,000 of the new bonds.

Earnings of the Katy.

A New York dispatch reports the following earnings:

JOHNSON POSTED $5,000

NEGRO PUTS UP HIS COIN FOR A FIGHT WITH JAMES J. JEFFRIES.

LATTER'S REAL MONEY WAS ALREADY UP

The Manager of Jeffries Expresses Delight at the Prospect of a Fight—But Will the Men Really Meet?

Chicago, Aug. 3.—George Lytle, backer of Jack Johnson, has posted $5,000 forfeit with a local sporting writer to cover a sum already put up by James J. Jeffries, as a preliminary to a championship ring battle between Jeffries and the negro.

Johnson made the retort courteous to Jim Jeffries by announcing that the latter must, before he leaves for Europe, set a time and place for a meeting when articles can be drawn up and other details fixed.

Johnson wants to meet Jeffries in person before the two meet in the ring.

Johnson goes to Toronto next Wednesday and after that to New York, where he hopes to meet Jeffries before he sails. Johnson did not seem confident while here that Jeffries would agree to a fight, as he believed his rival would make the terms so exacting as to make a meeting between the two impossible.

Berger Delighted.

New York, Aug. 3.—Sam Berger, manager for James J. Jeffries, expressed delight and said:

"Well, I guess there will be a fight," when informed last afternoon that Jack Johnson had posted $5,000 in Chicago to bind a match with Jeffries for the heavyweight championship.

As to a report that Johnson wants Jeff to agree to the time and place for the match before the latter goes abroad, Berger said:

"How can Jeffries name any time or place for the fight—particularly a place—before a bid has been received from a promoter. We would like to know when and where as well as Johnson, but we are not mind readers."

"If Johnson means business," he continued, "he should come here to New York as soon as the bids for the fight are in and he and myself will look over them, and anything that looks reasonably good to both of us we will accept."

"Jeffries is dealing with Johnson and the public in good faith. He only wants what is fair and reasonable. Any other champion—would have demanded 90 per cent of the gate, or purse, but he is good enough to say that Johnson shall have a loser's end. No, I won't say how much it will be, but it will repay him for training expenses even—well, even if it does not for the beating he will surely get."

EAST FACES MILK FAMINE

Dairymen to Raise Prices Unless Heavy Rain Comes.

New York, Aug. 3.—Unless there is a good rain within a few days, milk prices in the East will attain a figure not reached in years, according to dairymen of New York, New Jersey and most of the New England states, who have been affected by the long drouth.

The wholesale price of milk has risen from $1.75 and $1.90 to $4 a can in the last week or so.

ALL SEEMS SERENE

Aldrich and Payne Are Confident Difficulties Are Removed.

Washington, Aug. 3.—No sooner had the senate convened today than the members were reminded of yesterday's disturbance over the leather schedule of the tariff bill. The subject was introduced by Senator Culbertson, who, referring to the decision of the conference committee to bring in a joint resolution remodeling the leather provision, gave notice that when the time came he would present an amendment putting cotton bagging on the free list.

The decision of yesterday with reference to leather had a reassuring effect, as was made evident by the placid countenance of the republican leaders. Aldrich expressed his confidence that the bill will now go through without further difficulty.

The tariff conference report will be voted upon in the senate Thursday afternoon. An agreement to this effect was reached at noon today at the conclusion of a speech by Senator Clapp. By unanimous consent the agreement was reached, upon motion of Senator Bailey, of Texas.

KILLS WOMAN AND HIMSELF

Virginia Farmer's Third Attempt to Murder Succeeds.

Danville, Va., Aug. 3. Ben Russell, a farmer about 50 years of age, last afternoon shot and instantly killed Mrs. Annie Tankersley, aged 30 years, and then emptied the remaining barrel of his shotgun into his own head.

The double tragedy was enacted on the farm of Mrs. Tankersley at Luck. Last Wednesday the two had a quarrel and Mrs. Tankersley ordered Russell off the place. On Saturday he went to her house and fired at her twice with a shotgun, both shots being ineffective.

He made another unsuccessful attempt to kill her yesterday morning.

A LOCAL OPTION ELECTION

Its Validity to Be Passed Upon By New Court.

Springfield, Mo., Aug. 3.—One of the first cases to come before the new court of appeals, which will convene August 16 for the first time, will be one appealed by the saloonkeepers of Peirce City, in which the validity of the local option election held in Lawrence county six months ago will be attacked.

The saloonkeepers claim that Peirce City, which went wet by a few votes, has a population of more than 2,500, and that it should not have been included in the election call for the balance of the county.

The Lawrence county circuit court decided otherwise, after the county court had taken the census of Peirce City, showing a population of less than 2,500. The last saloon in Peirce City, as well as Lawrence county, will quit business next Friday.

TRY "COMMISSION" PLAN

OFFICIALS ELECTED UNDER A NEW CHARTER ARE NOW IN CONTROL.

COLORADO SPRINGS STEPS TO THE FORE

The City Is Normally Republican, But a Democrat Was Elected Mayor—Will Get Salary of $3,600 a Year.

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.

Colorado Springs, Colo., Aug. 3.—Colorado Springs has formally entered the list of American cities under the commission form of government. On Tuesday, July 27, the officials elected under the new charter assumed control of the city's affairs. The election was one of the most interesting in the history of the city. There were five candidates for mayor and twenty-eight for the four councilmanic positions. Under the provisions of the charter, successful candidates must receive a majority of all votes cast.

The first election resulted in no choice, and two weeks later a second was held between the two highest candidates for mayor and the eight highest for councilman. The new charter seeks to eliminate partisan politics by abolishing nominating conventions and party designations on the ballot and by requiring candidates and their nominees to make affidavit that they are not the representatives of any political party.

That this aim was accomplished is indicated by the fact that while Colorado Springs is normally republican by a comfortable majority, H. F. Avery, the successful candidate for mayor, is a democrat, while two of the councilmen are democrats and two republicans. The new officials declare that they will make all appointments on a non-partisan basis. At the first meeting the administrative departments were apportioned as follows:

Department of water and water works, Mayor Avery; finance, J. A. Himebaugh; health and sanitation, E. W. Frost; public works and property, A. J. Lawton; and public safety, E. C. Whitaker.

In entering office, Mayor Avery said: "Every member of the new administration is in hearty sympathy with the charter and we intend to carry out its spirit and intent to our best ability. We believe we shall be able to put the city on a business basis, and in our business policies we shall not be controlled by any political party or influenced by political considerations. We shall try to conduct the city's business as that of a private corporation is conducted, and to that end one of the first things we shall take up is the matter of economy."

Aside from providing for the commission form of government, the charter contains several new departures in the insertion of the recall, the initiative and the referendum, stringent provisions in regard to franchises, civil service in some departments, and adequate health restrictions. The mayor is to receive a salary of $3,600 and the councilmen $2,000 each, they being expected to devote their time to the city's business.

Colorado Springs is the first city in Colorado to adopt the commission form of government.

A GOOD STROKE

PEACE CONGRESS WORK

MUCH HAS BEEN ACCOMPLISHED DURING THE PAST 20 YEARS.

THE BRITISH SECTION MEETS IN LONDON

Today's Session Is to Further the Interest in the Meeting to Be Held in Swedish Capital Three Weeks Hence.

London, Aug. 3.—This year is the twentieth anniversary of the first International Peace congress in Paris and the tenth anniversary of the Universal Peace congress held at The Hague in response to a call issued by Emperor Nicholas, of Russia.

Both of these memorable events, so important in the movement for world peace, will be fittingly commemorated when the International Peace congress meets in Stockholm in the latter part of this month.

A meeting of the British section was held in London today to further the plans for a successful meeting when the opponents of war gather in the Swedish capital three weeks from next Saturday.

Despite the fact that the English people are agitated by visions of a coming conflict with Germany, the friends of peace are hopeful, and many at today's meeting declared that the last great war in the world's history has been fought.

It is pointed out that there has been a great growth in the movement for international peace since 1899, when a few friends of peace from the United States, Great Britain, France and two or three other European countries met at the French capital and held the first of the modern series of International Peace congresses.

Their meetings passed quite unnoticed by the press and the public, or were ridiculed as the sentimental performances of visionaries.

Last year, in London, after nineteen years of congresses held in the great capitals and chief cities of the world, and growing in number and power from year to year, the pacifists met for their seventeenth international gathering.

They were welcomed by the king and queen of England and by the British cabinet with a cordiality and generosity of hospitality rarely extended in those days to any body of philanthropic workers.

King Edward and the queen received in Buckingham palace a large delegation from the congress, and the great closing banquet at the Hotel Cecil, in which the prime minister was the chief speaker, was given the delegates by the government itself out of the hospitality fund, then just established by the chancellor of the exchequer.

This congress represented more than 500 peace organizations and a great body of peace workers throughout the world.

During this same period the Inter-parliamentary union, founded also in 1899, grew into a powerful organization of more than 2,500 statesmen, members and ex-members of parliament, banded together solely to foster international friendship and the supplanting of war by rational pacific methods of settlement.

The standing which this union has made for itself and the governments shows perhaps more than any other one thing the enormous progress which the cause has made within twenty years.

National peace congresses have been held for several years in France, England, Germany, the United States and other countries.

The permanent international court of arbitration was instituted in 1899, put into successful operation two years later, and became after 1907 the arbitration tribunal of the world. The foundations of a permanent world congress or parliament were laid by the second Hague conference before the twenty years expired, and the decision was reached that a permanent international court of arbitral justice be established as soon as the governments can reach an agreement as to the method of selecting the judges. In the meantime nearly one hundred treaties of obligatory arbitration have been concluded between the governments.

In no other countries is the cause of peace farther advanced than in the Scandinavian. Several peace congresses of Scandinavians have been held within a few years.

Christiana has entertained the Inter-parliamentary Union at one of its conferences, and likewise the International Law association—in both cases most generously and elaborately.

The Scandinavian parliaments have more than once—one or two of them, in fact, have four or five times—voted direct contributions to the support of the work of the Inter-parliamentary Union and of the International Peace bureau at Berne and Denmark, through its finance minister, is contemplating the immediate creation of a hospitality fund, like that of Great Britain.

FATHER O'REILLY'S VISIT

Confirmed Bishop Hogan in Kansas City Forty-One Years Ago.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 3.—The Rev. Father P. F. O'Reilly, of the Convent of the Holy Family, Springfield, Mo., is at the Coates house. He was a guest at that hotel forty years ago and this is his first visit to Kansas City in twenty-three years. He is 70 years old and says he is as active as he was twenty-five years ago.

"Forty years ago I lectured in Kansas City in the Catholic church of which Father Donnelly had charge," Father O'Reilly said at the Coates house.

"It was the only Catholic church here at that time. Kansas City then was a struggling little village. I came here frequently in the early days and watched the marvelously rapid development of this city with much interest. I was master of ceremonies at Bishop Hogan's confirmation in 1868.

For many years I had charge of a parish in St. Louis and lectured throughout the state. I have given up the lecture work, but I expect to remain in active church work many years. I came here to visit some of my old friends."

Seeks Her Brother, Ulrick McCord.

To the Kansas City Star: I am eager to find my brother, Ulrick McCord. He was born in Lexington, Mo., and later lived in Sedalia, Mo. I saw him last in Breckenridge, Col., eight years ago. He was known there as Ulrick Fordney. Fordney being our stepfather's name.—Ida May McCord, Gladstone Hotel

A WAR ON WHITE PLAGUE

THE STATE OF KANSAS HAS TAKEN ADVANCED STEPS IN THAT DIRECTION.

PEOPLE ARE IN FUTURE TO BE EDUCATED

Municipal Authorities Are to Be Assured That the Cleaning Up of Their Towns Is Absolutely Essential.

Lawrence, Kas., Aug. 2.—This month will witness in Kansas the most determined attempt to educate the people in the prevention of tuberculosis ever attempted in any state in the Union.

Dr. C. S. Emley, associate professor in pathology at the University of Kansas, is in charge of the campaign, which will extend all over the Sunflower state.

Dr. Emley will spend a week in Leavenworth, Topeka, Wichita, Pittsburg and other cities, and a day in each of the smaller towns.

For several years Dr. Emley has been making a special study of tuberculosis, and, at the last meeting of the board of regents of the university, he was granted a leave of absence for two years, in which time he is to work with the state board of health to see what can be done in Kansas toward checking the disease.

The regular plan for this crusade was formulated by Dr. S. J. Crumbine, secretary of the Kansas state board of health.

Dr. Crumbine, with Dr. Emley, attended the last meeting of the National Congress for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, and it was here they conceived this plan, for which the state of Kansas has set aside $10,000 a year for two years.

Upon arriving in a town, Dr. Emley will work with the local medical fraternity. Public illustrated lectures will be given, at which Dr. Emley will tell the people of the laws by which they must govern themselves to help in the fight against the dread disease.

"APPLE PIE ORDER"

MR. GWILLPILLBLY ARISES TO QUESTION OF INFORMATION.

Wants to Know the Origin of This Familiar Phrase—Incidentally He Chants Praises of the Real Pie.

"I know," said Mr. Gwillpillbly, "this is pretty hot weather to be asking questions, but I would like it if somebody would tell me the origin of the phrase 'in apple pie order,' meaning, as you know, that the thing or place so characterized is in the very slickest and trimmest sort of shape, homely, perhaps, but attractive and wholesome. It originated in New England, no doubt; this use of pie as a basis of comparison seems clearly to indicate that; but how did apple pie come thus to be set up as the symbol of superior excellence?"

"I suppose it was partly because of apple pie's priority of invention, for I imagine it will be conceded that apple was the first pie; but I suppose that its continued use in this manner has been due to the apple pie's unbroken continued pre-eminence in all good pie qualities. It could not have been long after the invention of apple pie before pumpkin pie was introduced, and mince is certainly an old time pie, and so likewise is cranberry; and in apple pie order certainly could not at once have become so firmly entrenched among the contemporaneous native New England forms of speech as to preclude the possibility of its being supplanted by 'in pumpkin pie order,' or 'in mince pie order,' if these not much liked productions of Pilgrim ingenuity had either of them displaced apple pie from the highest pinnacle of popular esteem."

"But neither of them ever did, which shows to my mind incidentally not only the clearheadedness and correct taste of those sagacious early inventors of pie but as well the perspicuity of their succeeding generations. 'In apple pie order' still stands, as indeed it should; for of all pies apple pie is undoubtedly the best, and if we are to have a pie figure to denote excellence that pie should be apple pie."

"As it is made in New England homes by New England housewives truly there is no pie like apple pie such as this, with a pie crust that somehow seems never to be equalled in the production of any other kitchen and with contents of surpassing pie joy, this apple pie when it has finally been made ready for eating."

"For this pie, the real apple pie of New England, goes through a final glorifying process after it has been baked. When they have taken the pie from the oven and placed it on the kitchen table they deftly remove the top crust, so deftly that it is never broken nor even its edges marred, and when this delightful disk of crust has been thus removed they spread around on the surface of the pie's filling a little fine butter, and some people sprinkle in a little grated nutmeg—though I can't say I fancy the nutmeg—and now they add sugar, and now you replace the top crust. You see the idea of adding the sugar after the pie is baked? With at least some of the sweetening left to be added now you do not have a thoroughly sweetened pie, but you get still the keen taste of the apple, and you get the sweetening, too, but you blend these delightfully in the eating."

"And thus prepared the apple pie is ready to eat. And it may be eaten hot, and in that condition there are few things more delightful; but as for myself I prefer this pie just at the moment when it has first got cool."

"Of course it will be understood that the apple pie in this form is a work of love and pride, to be found only in homes and to be had and enjoyed at its very best only where one can get home to eat it. But there are New England homes, and some elsewhere, I hope, where apple pie is still so made, and though you may think the weather too hot to discuss it, that such apple pie should have been coined into a phrase signifying everything that is good is to me no wonder. It is in this pie's simple excellence, I believe, that we find the origin of 'in apple pie order.'"

ATTACK WAS COWARDLY

SO WRITES ENGINEER C. W. GOODWIN REGARDING RECENT "CRITICISM."

SAID HE'D 'COME AGAIN' AND HERE HE IS

"Sink Hole" in Front of This Property in East Sedalia Resulted in the Gentleman "Taking His Pen in Hand."

The following communication printed in Monday's issue of the Democrat-Sentinel is reproduced today because of "bills" in the make-up yesterday, making the article almost unintelligible:

Missouri Pacific Hospital, Ward 11, St. Louis, Missouri, August 1.—Solomon of old said at one time words something like these: "Answer thou a fool according to his own wit." I see by the headlines of a certain piece in the columns of your paper of recent date, which now lies before me, what I call a vicious and cowardly attack upon me and my integrity by an unknown (to me) East Sedalian.

Mr. Editor, you seem to be quite well acquainted with me when you said in your issue of the 29th ult., viz: "Mr. Goodwin said he might come again, and likely he will." You can "betcherlife," and you are jolly well right on that. I will come again, and here I am, in my own self-defense, which is the first law of nature.

Somewhere about fourteen months ago I received an anonymous letter, threatening my very life with extinction, for all time, too, and warning me to "stay off the streets of the city and keep my d-d mouth shut."

I had not been accused of any greater crime than defending my wife and my children. I read the letter publicly from a wagon on the Market square in Sedalia in the presence of somewhere near 500 men and women of the city. I then and there paid my compliments(?) to the anonymous friend(?) and cowardly cut, and told him I was ready to die any old time in the defense as I have stated.

Mr. Editor, I have not changed my mind in the least since that declaration fell from my lips. The card you print is a verbatim ad libitum one of the one I received there, which I would have answered by return mail or personally, if the gentleman posing as my friend, to my face, had what I call "honor" enough to have signed his name—"John Doe," or whatever it is; but I spurned it as "vomit" when I saw it signed "An East Sedalian," and the same as you would turn down any correspondent who would send you any manuscripts unsigned by the writer.

I believe I know this writer as a railroad man, and why he should spurn or ridicule the "valiant railroad men" referred to is a mystery not easily understood. I know I am illiterate never been hung for what little I know—and, in my opinion, neither will the other fellow—"East Sedalian."

I am glad I don't have to believe what he says. I do not recollect that I spoke "very feelingly" of the sink hole on West Third street. It is my opinion this "East Sedalian" handles the truth in a very reckless manner when he says: "This sink hole in front of my property at 515 South Engineer street is impassable a day at a time after every rain."

I stand ready to condemn wrong at any and all times, in friend or foe. If this is the truth it should, and shall be remedied, provided I am in anyway responsible for the nuisance. What is it? What has happened out there? I have never heard a word of complaint from any one or from any source. Has East Sedalia had an earthquake? Has one dug a well in my sidewalk, or in the paving in front of my house? I have no recollection of when I last passed this piece of property. As is well known by nearly all who know me at all, I've not been able to work a day since the 6th day of last January; but if this same "East Sedalian" will please write me over his own signature I'll try and remedy any evil existing in front of No. 515 South Engineer avenue, not from his evidence alone, but from a sense of honor, which I claim to possess. As it will only take a "small expenditure of money" to repair this "sink hole," I might possibly raise the amount among a few of the business men and banks I've done business with in the last twenty-five years of my residence in Sedalia, and never beat one of them out of a penny. But, God helping me, I'd never ask this "East Sedalian" for a nickel, for he might possibly need all the nickels he has or can get to buy himself a loaf of bread or another glass of beer, if he drinks.

I love East Sedalia—there it was that I was married; there it was that three children were born to us. Unfortunately for us, one died. The other two I'm proud of, and I don't care who knows it.

I have scores of friends in East Sedalia, and some enemies, too. I will never make fun or speak lightly of the "valiant railroad men" or their families. I'm always ready to defend them in any hour of need. It has just been said by others of these railroad men that "they are the backbone and sinew of Sedalia." (You may leave me out, Mr. Editor, as I toot not my own horn in self-praise), and without them one-half of our big business houses and banks would be apt to close their doors.

Railroad men as a class are good livers and generous givers. I have "come again," Mr. Editor, and for the last time, too, to answer an anonymous writer, but with your consent I'll answer any reasonable writer who is not afraid or ashamed to sign his name to any question he may ask me through the columns of your esteemed paper.

Or if anyone has any more insulting insinuations to make or personal attacks on me, please notify him (if he asks) of my home address or St. Louis address, and advise them to be men and not mice, and let us carry on any future correspondence through the United States mails, and not tire your readers with any such "cards" as he ("East Sedalian") mailed you and I. If he is the scholar he would have us believe he is, let him begin his epistles to us as "By the way" or "Opportunist," instead of "Appropos." It would be easier to understand him then—for we common readers.

In conclusion, will say here is the nem de plume we hide behind, and we will give you at least initials a plenty, so your readers can guess who we are, and "An East Sedalian" will know. Very respectfully—Charles William Goodwin, 302 West Third street, Sedalia, Mo.; St. Louis, as per Heading.

NO WEDDING BELLS

FOR THE JUNIOR PARTNER AND THE STENOGRAPHER.

Mr. Branscombe Was Wealthy and Handsome and All That, But Miss Hawtrey Clung to Her Little $12 Per.

"But," urged Mr. Branscombe, the junior partner, after Miss Hawtrey, the beautiful stenographer, had said that she could not become his wife, "I can't understand why you refuse me. I am not an old man—that is, I hope I'm not old. Of course, some men are very old at my age; but I've tried to keep young, and at 35 no man has the right to feel that he is getting old. As for my financial standing, I can say that I am rich enough to insure you not only a comfortable home, but many of the luxuries that are dear to a woman."

"I haven't the least doubt about that," the lady replied. "If I were going to marry I should not wish my husband to be any younger than you are. A man of 35 ought to know his own mind. But, really, I wish you would not urge me any more."

"I—perhaps it is rather undignified for me to say so, but I hope I am not altogether unattractive as far as my personal appearance is concerned."

"Indeed, you are not, Mr. Branscombe. You are, if you will excuse me for saying so, a very handsome man."

"Thank you—I thank you with all my heart, my dear Miss Hawtrey. And I hope my treatment of you has always been gentlemanly."

"If it had not been I should not have remained here."

"If you have any doubts concerning my past I can assure you that there is nothing in it which I should be ashamed to have you know about."

"That is a great deal for a man to be able to say to a woman."

"Yes, I am glad you take that view of it. May I hope that I shall be able in time to make you change your mind? I do not insist on a hasty marriage. If you will only give me any reason to feel encouraged I will wait and try to convince you that I am worthy of you."

"Really, I must say at once that I do not desire you to go on treasuring any hope. I am sure that I shall not change my mind."

"Have you thought how much it would mean to you to be the mistress of a splendid home? To never have to bother about money? To have servants to do your bidding? To, in short, be the wife of a man of high standing in the community?"

"Yes, I've thought about all that. I prefer to remain as I am."

"I confess that I can't understand you. Your salary here is never likely to be any higher than it is at present, and you must often find it exceedingly difficult to get along on your income—to get the things that a woman naturally wishes to have in the way of clothes and that sort of thing, and then there is the necessity of coming into the city, rain or shine, to work among a lot of men who are not at all ways, I fear, as respectful or as gallant as men ought to be in their dealing with ladies. Think how much better it would be to have a splendid home to preside over; to—"

"That's the very thing I don't want. If I had a home to preside over I should have to stick there day after day, with no chance to get out and be among people—to see the world—to be a part of it. Not for me, Willie."

"Miss Hawtrey, will you kindly return to your typewriter and get off the letters I dictated to you this forenoon? And don't forget that they are to be sent out to-day even if you have to remain at work till eight o'clock to-night. I have noticed recently that you have been taking three-quarters of an hour off at luncheon. Remember that you are to be absent only half an hour."

"The horrible old grouch," Miss Hawtrey muttered, as she returned to her work, "he wants the earth for $12 a week."

HOT-WEATHER LAXATIVE FREE

At no other time of the year is the tendency to constipation greater than during the summer months, and this is especially the time that it is most important to keep the bowels open. The heat taints food, there are germs in the water, and even fruit has its dangers. For a dozen and one reasons the bowels should be kept open—you should have at least one good passage a day, and in the case of children and young people, two a day is better. The best way to obtain such relief, and to thoroughly regulate the stomach, liver and bowels, is by the use of DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN, the great laxative tonic. It is not a temporary relief like salts and purgative waters, and it does not gripe, like tablets and pills. It is so pleasant to take, and so gentle in action, that children prefer it to any other laxative. It is the children's ideal remedy for their stomach, liver and bowel troubles. Use it for constipation, indigestion, sick headache, biliousness, loss of appetite and sleep, drowsiness after eating, diarrhoea, "Summer Complaint," gas or wind on the stomach, etc. A bottle can be obtained at any drugist for 50 cents or $1.00. Thousands of families keep it regularly in the house because a laxative may be needed at any moment, and those who once use DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN always prefer it thereafter.

GOOD YEAST BREAD

SOME DIRECTIONS FOR ITS SUCCESSFUL MAKING.

Recipe Given by Eastern Authority Worth Remembering—Care in Kneading Dough is a Point of Great Importance.

In answer to a young housekeeper here are some practical directions for making yeast bread. But first, let me warn you that good bread cannot be made without good flour. The pure food commission has lately recognized that some white flour so commonly used is so lacking in nutriment that they have forbidden any more to be turned out at the mills. Be careful that you do not buy any of the old stock.

Then, too, if you are just learning to keep house, you may not know that there is a bread flour and a some what more starchy and less glutinous pastry flour. Be sure to buy the bread flour. You may distinguish it both by its slightly yellowish appearance, and by its granular, rather than powdery feel. Then, too, it does not cake when squeezed in the hand, as does the pastry flour.

Many excellent compressed yeasts can now be had, and it is perhaps not worth while for a woman who can get it fresh to make her own. You will require one pint of scalded milk, one tablespoonful of sugar, one teaspoonful of salt, one-third cake of compressed yeast, and, of course, enough flour to make a stiff dough. Be sure to measure the milk after it has been scalded.

Put the sugar, salt and scalded milk into a large mixing bowl or bread pan, stir until the sugar is dissolved and the milk lukewarm; then add the yeast, which has previously been softened in a little water. Finally, stir in the flour until you have a dough stiff enough to fold easily.

Now mold it for a minute or two to give it shape, as well as to more thoroughly mix the ingredients, and then set it to rise in a room of 70 degrees Fahrenheit. Cover it closely with an old tablecloth, that the top may not dry out, and leave it in peace for eight hours. Most people like to put their bread to rise over night, mixing it late in the evening and baking it the first thing in the morning. Or one can mix it in the morning and bake it just before dinner.

If it has not risen sufficiently in the allotted time it is a sign that the room was not warm enough during some portion of the time of rising. On the other hand, too warm a room or too long a period of rising will sour the dough. The proper amount of rise is just double the original bulk.

Before baking, knead the dough for five minutes on a bread board, to distribute the large bubbles and so make the bread finer grained. Mixing knives are now more generally used than one's fists for this operation. Lastly, shape it into a loaf by doubling the edges under again and again until you have a smooth, oblong mound, place it in an oiled baking pan, let it rise quickly in a warm place until it again doubles itself, and bake in an oven which is hot at first, but which gradually decreases in temperature, for an hour and a quarter.

The recipe I have given is for one very large loaf. It is easy enough to double or treble it if you want to bake more at one time.

The kneading should be done very gently. If you knead it too hard, the bread will be heavy.—Boston Herald

SUGAR MEN ENTER PLEA

Were Indicted for Alleged Violation of Anti-Trust Law.

New York, Aug. 3.—Directors of the American Sugar Refining Company, known as the "sugar trust," who were indicted along with the corporation and several other individuals as a result of the sugar trust's loan to Adolph Segal, which was made the basis of the plan to put the Pennsylvania Sugar Refining Company out of business, appeared through counsel before Judge Hand this morning and made their final pleas or demurrers to the charges of conspiracy to violate the Sherman anti-trust law.

These individuals are President Washington B. Thomas of the trust, John E. Parsons, its counsel, and John Mayer, Charles H. Senff, Arthur Donner and George S. Fraser.

CHANGES IN FIGHTING SHIPS.

United States Naval Designers Have Recently Made a Number of Improvements.

The principal changes are the removal of bridges, the taking out of the old military masts and the substitution for them of the new circular lattice-work masts for carrying the fire-control platforms. The after bridge and its associate armored signal tower have been removed and the forward bridge has been greatly cut down. The extensions of this bridge on each side of the conning tower are now so arranged that they can be quickly removed in time for battle, the captain of the ship being henceforth compelled to take his station within the conning tower, where he properly belongs. By the removal of the top hamper it will be possible for the captain to command the horizon, except through that arc of it which is shut out by the smoke-stacks, says a writer in the Scientific American.

This change will remove one more of the picturesque and popular episodes of the earlier days of sea fighting. The captain will no longer sight his ship from the flying bridge and in the open. The conning tower was built for him, and a due regard for the issues of the battle demands that he remain within it. It was the death of Admiral Vithoff, of the Czar-vitch, that threw the Russian line into disorder in the great sortie from Port Arthur, at the very time when the chances of shaking off the Japanese seemed favorable. The captain of one of the battleships in that fight told us that the admiral was struck by a shell as he was leaning with folded arms upon the railing of the bridge watching the Japanese line. That shot also wrecked the conning tower, it is true, but the latter was of a design which would not be considered in our navy.

In addition to the removal of top hamper, the whole of the accumulated layers of old paint throughout the ships is being removed; and in future, with a view to further reducing weights, no ship will be allowed to carry an accumulation of stores beyond the regular six months' supply. As showing the absurdity of the statement that the structural changes men-

Oswego, N. The election is scheduled for tomorrow, and meanwhile the "vets" assembled in annual encampment are divided into warring camps of adherents of the various candidates.

S.S.S. REMOVES
BLOOD HUMORS

Every pore and gland of the skin is employed in the necessary work of preserving its smooth, even texture, softening and cleansing it, and regulating the temperature of our bodies. This is done by an evaporation through each tiny outlet, which goes on continually day and night. When the blood becomes infected with humors and acids a certain percentage of these impurities also pass off with the natural evaporation, and their sour, fiery nature irritates and inflames the skin, and dries up its natural oils, causing pimples, boils, pustules or some itching rash, or hard, scaly skin affection. S. S. S. cures skin troubles of every kind by neutralizing the acids and removing the humors from the blood. S. S. S. cools the acid-heated circulation, builds it up to its normal strength and thickness, multiplies its nutrition, soothes and softens by its cooling, healthy stream of blood. S. S. S., the greatest of blood purifiers, expels all foreign matter and surely cures Eczema, Acne, Tetter, Salt Rheum and all other diseases and affections of the skin. It removes pimples, blackheads, and other unsightly blemishes from the skin and assists in restoring a good complexion. Book on Skin Diseases and any medical advice desired free to all who write.

Advantages of the Fireless Cooker Over the Usual Method

Retain all the natural juices of meats, vegetables, etc.
Renders food more nutritious and palatable.
Requires only about one-fifth the time.
Prevents scorching, drying up or burning.
Never overcooks or spoils the food.
Renders all food much more digestible.
Promotes good health and good temper.
Prevents the commingling of flavors.
Cooks cabbage, onions, etc., entirely without oil.
Gives you leisure for calling, shopping, taking nap, etc.
Turns Sunday dinners from drudgery to delight.
Prevents worry if husband or guests are late.
Does away with kitchen heat.
Cooks for breakfast over night.
Physicians say "the dyspeptic's best friend."
Fireless Cookers and the art of fireless cooking old, having been used in Norway and the old world ages ago—the only difference is that our Cooker built scientifically for all practical purposes.
In operation this wonderful invention is simpler itself. You simply prepare the food to be cooked in the regular way—place it on the stove and boil it to boil—then immediately transfer to the Cooker, cover tightly, add the insulated pipe covering—drop the lid and let the Cooker do the rest. In a few hours remove the cover and serve the boiling hot—perfectly cooked and with a taste that will prove delightfully surprising.

THE COOKER

is 24 inches long, 12 inches wide by 12 inches deep, made of kiln dried, specially prepared wood dovetailed on all corners.

The cabinet is packed with chemically treated mineral wood which retains heat at the high temperature.

The Cover is pressed steel, perfectly sanitary and indestructible; it cannot wear out. The Lid and Kettle Container is made of heavy seamless enameled tin, airtight and waterproof. Inside cold has absolutely no effect whatever on the contents of the Cooker. A dinner can be put in the Cooker and taken in the open air, on the porch for example, even if the temperature is degrees below zero, the cooking process will continue just as perfectly and scientifically as if the Cooker was in the house.

The Cooker contains a six-quart and a four-quart enameled pressed steel cooking kettle with special airtight covers.

SERVANT PROBLEM SOLVED

THE NORWEGIANS' KING

HAakon THE SEVENTH WAS BORN THIRTY-SEVEN YEARS AGO TODAY.

SPLENDID GENTLEMAN OF MANY PARTS

Both the King and Queen Are Great Favorites With the Subjects Who Adopted Them as Their Monarchs.

London, Aug. 3.—Throughout the kingdom of Norway today and in every nook and corner of the world where the hardy sons of the North have penetrated, there are fervent prayers of "God save the King." For this is the birthday of Haakon the Seventh, whom all loyal Norwegians call king.

When the joint kingdom of Norway and Sweden reached the parting of the ways, in 1905, the Norwegian people looked about for a suitable monarch.

arch. They were setting up in the independent monarchy business for themselves, and not forced, like the people of other kingdoms, to take what Providence gave them, willy, nilly.

Although they were not sufficiently democratic to raise one of their own nobles to the throne, and must by the rules of the royal game confine their choice to one of kingly blood, the Norwegians were yet particular as to the character of the man selected to rule them. They showed wisdom in the choice of Prince Charles of Denmark, who was proffered and accepted the crown along with the title of Haakon VII.

In the matter of ancestry the new king may be said to be strong. Born on August 3, 1872, just thirty-seven years ago today, he was the second son of King Frederick VIII of Denmark, and as Prince Charles was a great favorite of the Danish people. His Aunt Alexandra is queen of Great Britain and Ireland, his Uncle George the king of the Hellenes, which is Greek for Greeks, and his Aunt Dagmar was empress of Russia during the reign of Czar Alexander III, and mother of the present czar.

As Prince Charles, with little possibility of becoming ruler of a great nation, Haakon VII married in 1896 the Princess Maud, third daughter of King Edward VII and Queen Alexandra. Their son, Olav Alexander Edward Christian Frederick, was born six years ago on July 2. By his marriage to the Princess Maud, Haakon acquired the English king as a father-in-law as well as an uncle.

King Haakon is an accomplished gentleman of many parts, being an expert sailor and a thorough horseman, besides having some ability as a statesman. Both the king and queen are great favorites with the subjects who adopted them as their monarchs, and as for the little six-year-old prince—well, there's hardly a Norwegian who wouldn't lay down his life for that youngster.

So, although we Americans bitterly hate all kings, let's lay aside our prejudice for this day and date, only join the Norwegians in singing: "He ban ven yolly gud fellow."

Cleveland, O., Aug. 3.—Mayor Tom Johnson's 3-cent fare traction ordinance is being voted on at a referendum election today.

THEY WANT MISSOURI "DRY"

But There Are Others Who Don't, So What Will We Do?

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 3.—St. Louis is going to attain the honor, now held by Memphis, of being the largest "dry" city in America, if the Constitutional Amendment Association, in session today at the Planters' hotel, accomplishes its purpose.

The prohibitionists hope to force the secretary of state to submit prohibition to a popular vote next year. The work of securing signatures to an initiative petition will be pushed vigorously.

St. Louis is next to Milwaukee the most important center of the brewing industry in the United States, and the adoption of statewide prohibition would destroy the usefulness of millions of dollars worth of property and put thousands of men out of employment.
